

Pharmaceutical Sciences and Pharmaceutical Technology Open Day

A joint initiative between the Department of Pharmacy, University of Malta, the Malta Medicines Authority and the Malta Laboratories Network

23 August 2019

Venue: Department of Pharmacy, University of Malta

JOIN A TEAM OF SCIENTISTS CONTRIBUTING TOWARDS RESEARCH AND INNOVATION IN PHARMACEUTICAL ASPECTS: BECOME A PHARMACEUTICAL TECHNOLOGIST

About the course

The Pharmaceutical Technology course is a first cycle Bachelor programme that provides scientific, evidence-based knowledge and skills required during the processes of medication development, assessment, distribution, compounding and dispensing. The course covers areas including pharmaceutical process technology, drug analysis, pharmaceutical microbiology, regulatory affairs, applied pharmaceutical sciences and pharmaceutical quality systems.

Career Opportunities

- ✓ Quality assurance
- ✓ Quality control
- ✓ Pharmaceutical manufacturing facilities
- ✓ Regulatory affairs offices
- ✓ Wholesalers and drug distribution services
- ✓ Government pharmaceutical services
- ✓ Medical representatives

Course details

- ✓ First cycle Level of Qualification
- ✓ 3 years duration
- ✓ Full-time
- ✓ 180 ECTS credits

For more information:

www.um.edu.mt/ms/overview/UBSCPTCHFT-2012-3-O

PROGRAMME

09:30 – 09:45	Welcome Prof Lilian M Azzopardi Head of Pharmacy Department, University of Malta
09:45 – 10:00	Introduction to course description Dr Janis Vella Szijj Course co-ordinator
10:00 – 10:30	Analysis of cannabis using HPLC Dr Janis Vella Szijj Claudine Micallef Peplow, Lab Officer Pauline Falzon, Lab Officer
10:45 – 10:50	Introduction to Malta Medicines Authority Prof Anthony Serracino Inglott Chairman of the Malta Medicines Authority and Malta Laboratories Network
10:50 – 11:05	Ongoing research on medicinal cannabis Luana Mifsud Buhagiar, Advanced Scientific Initiatives Director, Malta Medicines Authority
11:05 – 11:15	Address by Hon Dr Deo Debattista Parliamentary Secretary for Consumer Rights, Public Cleansing and Support for the Capital City
11:15 – 11:30	Testimonials from medicinal cannabis research Ingrid Bonello, Pharmaceutical Technologist Kirsty Axisa, Pharmaceutical Technologist and MSc student
11:30 – 12:00	Video testimonials
12:00	Networking Lunch

Opportunities for paid work-related experiences at the Malta Medicines Authority

