Batch Number	Expiry Date	Pack Size	First Distributed
All unexpired lots of the above products	N/A	N/A

Pfizer Hellas S.A. c/o Vivian Corporation Ltd is voluntarily recalling all unexpired lots of MENINGITEC Suspension for Injection in Pre-filled Syringe (Meningococcal serogroup C oligosaccharide conjugate vaccine (adsorbed)) from pharmacies and wholesaler dealers in Malta under the supervision of the Medicines Authority.

The recall is due to the potential presence of a reddish orange particulate in some of these batches which has been identified as iron oxide and oxidized stainless steel.

Wholesale dealers and pharmacies are asked to quarantine all unexpired stock of the above product and await instructions by Vivian Corporation Ltd which is responsible to recall the affected stock.

Yours faithfully

Karl De Marco
Medicines Inspector
